Message from the Principal,

Greetings to all...

It gives me immense pleasure in writing this letter to my student community. My belief says and confirms that every individual is capable and can do wonders when they are getting adequate care, opportunities and education. There are three “E”s which shape good human being in the society that is Education, Environment and Experience.

Being in the education field we are trying our best to transform skills, knowledge and attitude (SKA) for each and every student at right time and with right practices. This makes the student to become good engineer, good human being and good citizen of India.

As we are entering in sixth year of operation, there are major milestones like six hundred plus students studying in our campus, four hundred and sixty five students completed their course and gone for higher studies and placement, started contributing to the society and further working as our ambassadors and responsibility of my team members is increasing to sustain these milestones and striving for better deliverables to all our stake holders.

I wish all my students who contributed and show case their talents in this newsletter and best of luck for their career. My heartfelt thanks to Editorial team of this newsletter for taking extra effort to make this newsletter colourful, joyful at the same time very informative and interesting to readers.

Thanks again to all and almighty

Yours Sincerely,

M. Saravanan

FREEDOM FIGHTER'S SACRIFICE FOR INDEPENDENCE

Introduction:

I am really feeling glad to write about our freedom fighters who struggled a lot for our freedom.

About our Leaders:

The Greatest leaders like Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru started the action against British. They guide the people to follow the correct way to bring their life in peace. Especially, Mahatma Gandhi is the one who struggled for the independence of the people. He was a poor man with more knowledge. He is the one who took an action against the British and guide the people by saying all the good things. He met all people and gave patriotic speech.

Gandhi started the Dandi March with the small group of people but the other people who came to know about the goodness of this participated in the Dandi March. Even though, the British warned him, he did not withdraw his effort. So they put Gandhi into jail. But the people continued the Dandi March.

Problem Faced:

The British who were a monster treated our people much worst. Mainly, they gave more tortures to the women. They tortured the women vulgarly in front of their husband and family. They keep them as servants of their palace. They take all their rights. They made our people to suffer a lot by saying that "Less food, more work; less rest, more work". By seeing this, our freedom fighters started to fight against the British people violently. But our Mahatma Gandhi started his fight in a silent manner.

Way to Freedom:

Though freedom fighters faced much problem and also spent more days on this, they fought again and again with perseverance. They lost lot of blood for us and got Freedom for us. They went to jail and spend lot of years there itself. However, they got freedom on 15th August, 1947.

Conclusion:

We must convey the sacrifice and the proud of our Freedom Fighters to our generations.
